

Carillon Concert Continues

The music of the 51 cast bronze bells of the Jessie M. Barron Memorial Carillon in the tower of Saint Stephen's Church, Cohasset, continues each Sunday afternoon, from 4 to 5 p.m. until September 30.

The guest artist for the program on August 12 will be Leen 'T Hart, the distinguished composer, performer, and teacher, who is Director of the Royal Dutch Carillon School in Amersfoort, The Netherlands. Mr. 'T Hart has given recitals extensively throughout Europe, and North and South America, and has taught many of the prominent carillonners of the United States.

'T Hart's program will consist of a wide range of music of general interest, including works of the classical period, folksong arrangements, and a number of his own compositions. Printed programs will be distributed at no charge at the time of the recital.

Listening is good from the Cohasset Common and adjacent areas, including the courtyard at the base of the carillon tower.
